

Stronger Together with DeAmon Harges

DeAmon Harges is a Community Developer and Roving Listener. He listens to citizens in his community to discover their gifts, passions and dreams, and to find ways that people can share their gifts in order to build community, economy and mutual delight.

What Join DeAmon Harges in conversations about:

- What does it mean to be in community?
- What brings joy to us and to our community?
- How are our communities strengthened by our diversity?
- What are the ways that we can see people differently?

Who and Why This event is intended for anyone who is passionate about the community they share.
